

EMPLOYMENT NOTICE

Online Applications are invited for the following positions at the Wardha site under two Projects in coordination with Datta Meghe Institute of Higher Education and Research (Deemed to be University). Only short-listed candidates will be called for interview. These posts are purely on contractual basis. Details of posts are as below.

Name of the Project 1 : Evaluation Of “LEAD” (Learn, Eat And Develop) Intervention for Mothers to Improve Early Childhood Development and Reduce Stunting in Infants of Urban Slums of Nagpur, Wardha and Belgavi. (2024-2029)

Funded by : DBT/Wellcome Trust - India Alliance (IA)

Name of the Post & No. of Vacancies	Essential Qualification
Cell Phone Counselors (3)	A Master’s degree in Social Work, Public Health, Nutrition, or a related field. A diploma in Early Childhood Development, Care and Education or Nutrition and Health Education is also required. Previous counseling experience, especially via phone, in health or nutrition contexts. Experience with early childhood development or stunting projects is advantageous. Strong communication and interpersonal skills, proficiency in phone counseling, ability to empathize with caregivers, and maintain confidentiality. Knowledge of local languages or dialects is preferred.
Outcome Data Collector (4)	A Bachelor’s degree or Master’s degree in Social Work, Public Health, or a related field. Previous experience in digital data collection, especially within health or nutrition projects. Experience in early childhood development or stunting projects is advantageous. Strong communication and interpersonal skills, proficiency in data collection techniques, ability to empathize with caregivers, and attention to detail, maintaining precision in data entry and documentation. Familiarity with digital tools and platforms used for data collection. Proficiency in local languages or dialects is preferred.

Name of the Project 2 : Development and evaluation of effectiveness of improved take home foods in combination with behaviour change intervention to improve nutritional status in children in selected districts of six states of India: A Cluster Randomized Controlled Trial (The NECCTAR trial*) – (2024 - 2028)

Funded by : Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR)

Name of the Post & No. of Vacancies	Essential Qualification
Project Research Scientist-I (Non-Medical) (1)	Ph.D. or Master’s degree in Nutrition and Public Health with at least 3 years of research experience. Proven track record of coordinating and conducting large-scale field research, preferably in nutrition or public health interventions. Strong analytical, communication, and organizational skills. Proficiency in data analysis software (e.g., SPSS, Stata, R) and research tools and knowledge of advanced research methodologies. Preferred Skills : Experience with randomized controlled trials and behavior change interventions. Familiarity with the local languages and community dynamics of the six states involved. Knowledge of nutrition and early childhood development programs.
Project Technical Support-III (2)	Master’s degree in Computer Sciences, Public Health, or related field with more than 1 years of experience. Or Bachelor’s degree in Computer Sciences, Public Health, or related field with more than 2 years of experience. Experience in data entry, knowledge of data management systems, fieldwork experience, and report writing. Or Experience with statistical software and data management tools. Proficiency in research tools and methodologies, including STATA, SPSS, and R. Proficient in using REDCap and ODK for designing electronic data collection tools. Strong analytical and problem-solving abilities. Ability to work collaboratively with a diverse team and travel frequently to project sites. Preferred Skills : Experience in nutrition, child health, or behaviour change interventions. Familiarity with data analysis software and local languages in the project’s selected districts.

Interested candidates are requested to send their Resumes/CV to jobsprojects7@gmail.com before 06:00 pm on 5th February 2025.

For Further details please visit our website : www.dmiher.edu.in